You Should Hear Our Faculty Say--

"Now Don't you see....."

"There's no question about it....."

"I goes to New York and I comes to St. Aug. and I flunks....."

"Quit. Children....."

"I don't intend to be dogmatic but....."

"I won't call any names but you take Miss.....or Mr....."

"Quite true, quite true, I must confess....."

"This class begins at 9:30 not 9:29 or 9:31....."

"I advise you to read chapters.....and....."

"Well that's right but.....but you didn't say enough....."

"Goodspeed has dust on it."

"Do your daily work daily."

"Mr. or Miss.....There's such a thing as talking and saying nothing."

"Common sense should rescue you by now"

"What think ye of this question?"

"But girls.....you just wouldn't understand."

CLASS of '42

CLASS HISTORY

On a gloomy, rainy September day in 1938, 102 eager individuals made their first appearance at St. Augustine's and were destined to become the Class of '42'. This versatile group represented sixteen states.

The customary freshman initiation was administered on the second day of our arrival, with the "Dogs" giving the upperclassmen plenty of trouble and competition. During the first week a reception was given each night by some organization to make the freshmen feel at home and that they might become acquainted with the different individuals.

One month after our arrival, Frances Johnson, President of the Student Council called for our first official class meeting, and the following election of officers took place: Philip Sellers, president; Purdie Anders, Secretary; Jean Massey, Assistant Secretary; and Miss C. Perkins, Treasurer.

Eager to get the most out of college, we soon made our presence known through various achievements and participations in different extra-curricular activities. We were represented in the Choral Club, Choir, Dramatic Club, Football, Tennis, Basketball and many other organizations.

After the class had weathered the storm for one year, we could look back and say, "Well Done". Our president, Mr. Sellers, won the Omega Psi award for exemplifying manhood, scholarship, uplift and perservation.

William Young won the Phi Beta Sigma award for the best scholarship record during the year. Frances Mary Mayo won the annual prize of $10.00 for earning the highest scholarship average in General Biology. Thomas Harris was chosen most Handsome young man on the campus.

The class was guided in our Sophomore year by Mr. Johnnie Horton. The class had been greatly reduced, as only 60 of the 102 returned. The first important job was to prove to the incoming freshman class that the Class of '42' was it's superior. It took us a long time to get over the loss of our friend Gladstone E. Abisdid who had proved in the previous year that he was always a friend in "need."

At the end of our second year Miss Mayo won an award for excellence in Dramatic Expression.

The class was guided in our Junior year again by Mr. Horton as President, Andrew Allen, Vice President and Purdie Anders as Secretary. This was the year in which we were to prove our worth. After all the members had returned, full of vigor and vitality, we found that we had lost only four students. We were going to start out at the beginning and show everyone now that the Class of '42' was indeed a great class, but the class suffered greatly from internal disorder. However, the class put forth a great effort at the last moment to sponsor a wonderful and enjoyable Junior-Senior Prom. At the end of the term, the marks showed that many of the Juniors had gained places on the honor roll. Election of officers for the incoming year was held at the end of the year with Lisle Gillman being elected president; Maurice Curtis, Vice-President; Purdie Anders for the fourth year as Secretary; Johnnie Horton, President of the Student Council and Director of the Brotherhood; President Gillman was also elected president of the Acies Club for the second year, and editor-in-chief of the Pen; Andrew Allen, President of the Chancellors Club; Miss Mayo, President of the Zeta Sigma Rho Society; Joseph LeCompte and Philip Sellers, Co-Captain of the football team.

We entered our senior year with a feeling of Joy and Sadness. We were joyful because we were about to enter a new era of life for which we had so diligently prepared, and we were sad because we were about to leave dear friends who had become a part of our lives. Of the 46, 39 of us had marched the hard road together for the four years and now we are about to part. We can say, we gave the very best we had. We have witnessed an improving football team and an outstanding basketball team. Despite its many errors and other faults, the class of '42' has made a definite contribution to St. Augustine's College. It has furnished the nucleus of the athletic teams, choral clubs, choir, dramatic clubs. Its members have left an inspiration upon those who are to come after.

In athletics we must mention Joseph LeCompte, Philip Sellers, Andrew Allen, Albert Brocco, Hunter Satterwhite, Johnnie Horton. In dramatics; Francis Mayo, Velma McEwen, Tululah Parker, Annie P. Wilder and Andrew Allen. In music; Purdie Anders, Leroy Clement, Larkin King, Velma McEwen, Wilbert DeLaine and Francis Mayo. Scholarship, the whole class has done well, but special mention should be made of Frances Mayo, Juanita Jones, Robert Clark, Mildred Fancher and Philip Sellers.

Now at our last step we look back at our past achievements. It was a hard and rough road but there was joy and pleasure in conquering the obstacles that arose. Although there were times when things went wrong and harsh words were spoken, we knew within our heart that we loved every member of the class and would have done our part to help them.

To the members of the faculty, we are indeed grateful for your never tiring efforts to help us. I dedicate this history to my former roommate, Arnold Richard Henderson, who was called into the armed forces of our country two weeks before he was to enter as a senior in the class of '42', he has proved to be a scholar and a true friend.

Now on May 27, 1942, 46 individuals will be graduated from St. Augustine's College as the class of '42'. St. Augustine's, you have done a great job, we are going, but not far, we will always be true to you.

Purdie Anders--'42'

Class of Forty-Two

Words—Frances M. Mayo

Tune—"White Cliffs of Dover"

All too soon these years Of Toil, joy, and fears have passed into eternity;

Alma Mater's name
Our eager lips frame
With fervent prayers to worthy be.

Within thy four cherished walls
Our futures and plans were made,
Fond memories we hold dear,
Through the years will grow strong, not fade;

We of forty-two
Now bid you adieu
May St. Augustine's never fade.

Ode To St. Augustine's

By Mrs. Juanita da Lomba Jones

Firm be our step
Our faces east,
Unalterable our aim,
That in this year of greatest need
We will keep bright the flame,
The flame of knowledge
That was lit
Within these honored walls,
The truth, the beauty we have learned
In St. Augustine's halls.
In cap and gown
Our scroll we take—

May it an emblem be,
In the long years that lie ahead
We've not forgotten thee.
We face to-day
A saddened world,
Democracy's great war
Has made our burden heavier far,
Than for those who've gone before.
We strive, we pray,
We seek, we find.
We will be strong and true—
That the world will not forget
The class of forty-two.

CLASS PROPHECY

HARTFORD "8448W please"

"May I speak to Doris, please?"

"Hell-o, Doris?"

"How are you?—Fine—That is just grand. I am now working with the U. S. O. land army and during the course of my travels, I have met practically all of the members of the class of '42 or someone who knew something about them."

"What? When did I arrive in New York? Why last night. Please get a chair because when I get through you will need a support."

"I went through Spencer, North Carolina about three days ago and imagine my surprise when I stopped at a huge dairy belonging to Leroy Clement. Such butter, eggs and milk—to say nothing of the cheese—you've never seen. He has also discovered a way with the aid of Tulula Parker who is his laboratory technician, to separate onions from milk without pasturizing it. No, he isn't married—"

"But I'll tell you who is married—Georgette Green. She has married Dr. Bond and the little one is a miniature of him. Oh, incidently Olvette Hall has actually married Graham Cathey—Yes, they are living in Winston-Salem and the proprietors of 'The Elite Night Club.' That is postively the finest club in Winston-Salem. You should see it!"

"By the way, did you read about your three classmates? Who? Why Bob Clark, "Tex" Allen and Sellers—they won honorary medals for having bombed military objectives near Berlin successfully! Since I am talking about the war, Curtis is Brigadier General in the army. My Dear, he has so many medals he looks like a sixteen hundred knight. You can't see poor "Curt" for the medals!"

"Pardon this rambling—but I just must tell you everthing about everybody as it pops into my head. I stopped by Saint Augustine's and guess who the college physician is? Tommy Harris! He has taken Dr. Perry's place. My how time changes everything. You really wouldn't know the place. Mildred Fancher is Dean of Women and Purdie Anders is president!" Do you realize it has been ten years since we left there? The war had just begun."

"On my way to the city, I stopped at the nation's capitol and saw Hattie Jerkins. She has a very fine "Job" as a messenger for the war department. She is doing fine because she delivers by word of mouth and no spy can understand it. "Jerk" informed me that Velma is working on her PhD. at the University of Wisconsin. And what is she getting it in? Rural Sociology!"

"Joe Boop" is coach at Howard and he told me that Frances Mayo is teaching French and music at Minor's Teachers College. She has had her PhD. for five years."

I came as far as Philly with Dorothy Raeks. She was on her way back to Atlantic City after attending a Social Service Conference in Washington. For recreation she is teaching Bible at the "Y". She informed me that Thomascine Williamston is a dress designer and seamstress in Montana. She is indeed talented. Dotty says that is something in this day. It is actually a miracle."

"I had dinner in Philly at Harriet Washington and Alice Parker's "Chicken Shack" on Ridge Avenue. They cook the loveliest greens—as you know they always could. I passed a barber shop on South St. and who do you suppose was the owner? None other than John Hawkins! And he is actually bald!"

I took the 9:20 out of Philly and Walter West was recapping at the station. You know he was too small to get into the army. This morning I went over to Lincoln training school to see some of my co-workers and whom do you think is one of the head mureses? Elizabeth Amos—and she looked quite trim in her uniform. As you know Holly has gone to the front and poor Bertha Little decided to take up nursing in hopes that she may get a chance to be sent to the front too and perhaps to be near him. Well, I almost forgot Florence Simpkins. I saw her about a month ago in "Catfish", South Carolina, while there on duty. She is principal, teacher, recreation directress and ration supervisor. She is about the size of Evelyn Wright. What is Evelyn doing? My dear, she has been divorced about three times and she has decided to give up the matrimonial side of life. She is at present a volunteer Red Cross Worker."

"I almost forgot to tell you, Ella Mae Williams is principal of Washington High and Hypathia Saunders is head of the History department there."

"I suppose you know Johnny is editor of the "Afro" and Richard McClelland is foreign correspondent for the same paper. Did you see Carmelita's play

"The Bull Delves Into Politics" at the Summer theatre in Hartford? Well, that play is on Broadway and is a whale of a success. Remember how our English teacher said she was going places? And Larkin King is dancing at the Paramount this week. My Dear, he is actually in the limelight. He is practically another Bojangles! Is there anyone I have not mentioned? Who? Oh yes Lisle Gilman. Well, he went back to Trinidad and at present is a doctor there.

I've told you about everybody else—what in the world are you doing? So you went back to Lincoln Nursing School—and are now head nurse at Hartford Hospital? How grand!!

I suppose we've talked long enough and about everybody. Goodbye.

CLASS WILL

We the Senior Class of Saint Augustine's College City of Raleigh, State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and body, realizing that our college days are drawing to a close, take this means of disposing of some of our treasures which we accumulated in the past four years. Each and everyone of us realizes the value of said treasures and we hereby charge our legatees to guard them with their very lives. We are disposing of them in the following manner:

Elizabeth Amos bequeaths her dainty shod feet to Margaret Campbell.

Georgette Green bestows her ability to sleep through classes for the whole hour to anyone who can do so and pass.

Anna Pearl Wilder leaves her ability to eat wholesale St. Aug. food wholesale and still remain slender to Edith Mask.

Albert Brocco bestows his position on the tennis team to John Blue.

"Tex" Allen leaves his ability to love more than four girls at one time to Milton Galamison.

Harriet Washington leaves her black velvet chapel hat to Toby Brown. Said hat is to be worn to chapel regularly, not including Sunday.

"Joe" LeCompte leaves his position on the football team to Scott Murphy.

Purdie Anders bestows his position as head waiter to anyone who can keep from cussing out loud.

Florence Simpkins bestows her laugh to anyone who can imitate her without disturbing classes.

Frances Mayo bequeaths her astonishing ability as well as versatility to anyone who is able to be president of two clubs, major in French, practice teach and still find time to angle. It is requested that a junior accept this bequeath. It does not make any difference which one as long as she does the required things well.

John Hawkins bestows upon Henry Parker his ability to grow a "Pomp" which does not require a comb.

Robert Clark leaves his ability to handle his smooth love affairs to Nathan Wright, hoping that he will be promoted to first fiddler.

Tulula Parker leaves her "influential connections" to Caroline Jones.

Mildred Fancher leaves her teaching ability to Delores Lewis.

Thomascian Williamston leaves her position in the library to Gwendolyn Roberts.

Richard McClelland bestows his unconcerned attitude to George Crenshaw.

Lisle Gillman bequeaths his play daughters and his position as "Daddy" to anyone who can play it cool.

Bertha Little bestows her quiet docile manner to Dorothy Clark.

Larkin "Loving" King bestows his "Big Time" singing in the choir to "Chief" Kent.

Phillip Sellers leaves his position on the football team and his flat feet to Lloyd Quarterman.

Dorothy Racks bestows her ability to make ninety on a Bible Quiz to Lenora McLaughlin. Said legatee will have to stay up until at least twelve o'clock to do this.

Velma McEwen leaves her position in the choir to Otis Muse.

Evelyn Wright bestows her ability to be able to go with at least twelve young men in four years to Annie Armistead.

Hunter Satterwhite leaves his ability to loose an assignment to "Red" Morse.

"Tom" Harris leaves his ability to sit and criticize to Norman Procope.

Walter West wills his size and ability to play tennis to Vernon Peters, hoping that said legatee will in reality be the "Tiny."

Olivette Hall wills her bangs to anyone who can wear them successfully.

Alfred Brown leaves his jiving ability to Jerome Powell in hopes that "Jerry" will carry on after he is gone.

Leroy Smith wills his car to the college in order that the teams might have a means of transportation.

Carmelita Perkins wills to any fool who can do a full time domestic job plus washing and ironing and carry 35 semester hours and make the honor roll.

Juanita Jones leaves her ability to write romantic poetry to Viola Currie.

Henry Evans and Charles Sturdivant bequeath their role as the "Bogarts" to Henry Horton and William Gordon.

James Evans bestows his ability to discuss political affairs to Graham Cathy.

Doris Peters wills her ability to walk slowly to class and still get there before the bell rings to anyone who has the time to do so.

Maurice Curtis bestows his dramatic abilities to Albert Malony. Said legatee will have to work diligently and be able to play "Hamlet" no less.

Leroy Clement wills his position at the dairy to Dewitt Powell hoping he will find a method of separating the onions from the milk. Said legatee may procure the results from the experiments thus carried out from L. Clement.

The two "Hell-Cats" of the class of '42 bestow their positions to Milton Galamison and "Joe" Gordon.

Ella Mae Williams wills her seriousness and her place in practice teaching to "Ricky" Blake.

"Johnny" Horton leaves his ability to angle twenty-four hours a day and still carry on at least a dozen other activities to Dabney Holley.

Wilbert Delaine wills his ability as a musician to "Jack" Summons.

Hypatha Saunders wills his ability as equal ability to discuss any Rural Sociology problem with vigor to Eloise Donaldson.

Hattie Jenkins bestows her amazing ability to remain in college, very demure for three years, and then in her senior year to blossom forth as an "A" number one glamour girl to Artharine Cook.

Charles Higgs wills his slowness to William Fax.

To the rest of the students, the graduating class of 1942 bequeaths all broken pencils, half empty ink bottles, mathematical problems, lost text books and weekly Bible, French, Biology, and History quizzes. Our chapel seats we leave to the junior class which they are requested to fill with regularity.

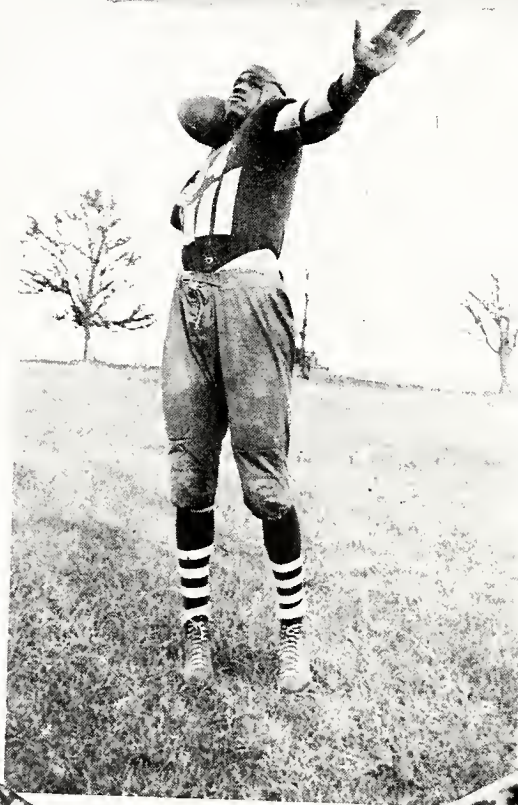

To the members of our faculty who have been most patient with us for four years we take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation for all that they have done. To our Alma Mater we pledge our everlasting devotion, loyalty and deepest love.

We hereby charge to students of St. Augustine's College the task of executing our Last Will and Testament. In witness thereof we have here unto set our hands and seal this day of May in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-two.

Eager expectancy was imprinted on the faces of the entire Saint Augustine's family as each succeeding issue of the College paper "The Pen" was rolled off the press. Under the astute leadership of our diminutive Editor-in-Chief Mr. Lisle Henry Gillman, "The Pen" proved its watchword and theme, "The Pen is mightier than the sword." The character and contents of the issues of 41-42 have achieved unparalleled success and have set a precedent as regards to student expression.

"The Pen" is now a certified member of the Colored Intercollegiate Press Association and is destined to greater success in the ensuing years.

An Anonymous Poem

dear friends four years ago I went to sea on the good ship of learning
I would not go again you bet and get my brain to churning the classmates were all horror struck when pirates swarmed our decks Tex Allen shouted not to fear till they were right on our necks the pirates came up fierce and bold with cutlasses and sabers Sellers and Lecompte couldn't keep them off despite athletic labors Dotty Racks coolly arose took out a can of powder applied it to her nose whereat the crowd spoke louder Flo Simkins put upon her feet her dainty little shoes and Anna Pearl very scared began to sing the blues Harriet Washington cried let's start a game
of our beloved pinochle Georgette Green agreed to it with many a hearty chuckle Frances Mayo came and gazed with great sad brown eyes while pirates trussed up brave Evans to her supreme surprise then Evelyn Wright came along a-pleading with those villains oh take our gold but go away and leave alone us chilluns well she got results at once Evans quickly was undone those wicked pirates on the ship to Evelyn's side were won then Bessie Amos began to cut up her cute capers she shouted to the pirate chief huh, go peddle your papers in came just then to the salon one Battie Jerkins flurried and close upon her twinkling heels flirtatious Purdy hurried the pirate chief accuses him of flirting twas quite outrageous Hunter Satterwhite then shouted loud and long a jury trial let's stage us they called the whole class to the room Larkin King was the judge the pirates were the jury men for from their views they wouldn't budge the class then spoke their minds about this perilous affair some wished to stop the trial at once and some just didn't care

so Purdy rose to plead his case with hands deep within his pockets his speech was sharply broken by Bertha Little's cut-a-racket then tall Jonny Horton got up to leave this most uncourtly court but up and coming Tommy Williamston stopped him short before they had a chance to speak some pirates in them sank their talon fingers yanked them up and made them walk the plank then Mildred Fancher got up and said you mean old pirates you already three of us are gone what more do you plan to do Velma McEwen then strode forth to say her say quite through then came a hall and a Parker they were likewise thrown in too when Leroy Clement warbled loud in his rich throaty tenor the pirates said that he must go too
he really hadn't a choice Ella Mae Williams then arose to take the witness stand Delaine and Flora Niles surrounded her in band
if you throw us into the sea as shredded wheat for sharks before we go let's have just one more of our college larks this angered so the pirates bold that they heaved the crowd en masse and made for sharks a breakfast food of that illustrious class the shark that swallowed Hypatha sanders felt just like Jonah's whale when she in ocean's current read that day's current event tale Doris Peters taught her shark to roll around his eyes and Carmelita Perkins fish can paint the charm of a fair sunrise Frances Mayo's shark is spouting forth his literal French translations John Hawkins is quelling all the chemie conflagrations those 1942 sharks procession most entrancing made in King Neptune's watery way where salty waves were dancing well friends the sharks are now the best of educated fish
the hope that I may equal them is now my only wish

24 HOURS A DAY.
7 DAYS A WEEK IS

OLD STUFF TO US!

© 1941 REDDY KILDWATT

We cheered, too when the Government called on industry to work twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week, until this war is won.

But continuous production is nothing to the electric industry. We've always worked that way. That's one big reason why we were prepared to power the factories that are filling the sky with planes, the earth with tanks, and sea with ships.

Production schedules that stagger the world are possible only because America is so powerful. America has far more electric power than all the Axis countries combined. And today's power is quickly available at almost any point of need.

These things have been accomplished because America's electric companies have been built and operated the American way—by good business management.
